ANOTHER ATTACK ON HUMAN LIFE

On February 1, the Senate Health Committee scheduled a hearing for this past Thursday, February 7 at 1:00 pm on the NJ Assisted Suicide bill (S1072).

We are presently hearing that the full Assembly Vote may vote on the companion bill, A1504, before the end of the month so right now it is critically important for you to do these two things:

1. Call and email your two Assembly Members
2. Call and email your State Senator

And urge them to Vote NO on A1504/S1072.

Please!
Do this even if you have contacted them previously.

You can call and email them with a pre-written email and suggested phone message already prepared by going to:

[www.votervoice.net/mobile/
NJRTL/Campaigns/59065/Respond](http://www.votervoice.net/mobile/NJRTL/Campaigns/59065/Respond)

To protect patients from the dangers of doctor-assisted suicide, contact your legislators and tell them to Vote NO on A1504/S1072.

THE HEARTBEAT OF THE PARISH

There are many aspects of St. Peter's that make it a great parish, the devotion, dedication and generosity of the parishioners, the beautiful church, the excellent school, our outstanding staff and personnel, our many organizations and activities; and the list goes on and on. But the true furnace of supernatural light, the true powerhouse of spiritual energy, the true engine that drives the parish is our Perpetual Eucharistic Chapel. In reality, our chapel is the source of life and grace that underlies every aspect of our parish vitality and greatness.

This November we are celebrating 23 years of perpetual adoration at St. Peter's! The deepest thanks goes to Flora Fingerhut who has overseen the chapel since its founding in 1996. Likewise, a heartfelt thanks to all of our committed adorers, who are the real pillars of the parish.

We are now appealing for coverage for a few hours of adoration, as some adorers have moved out of state, fallen into poor health or passed away. Please call the rectory or look for Flora Fingerhut who will explain the need.

For anyone who has not discovered the intimacy with the Eucharistic Jesus that one finds in our chapel, now is the time to investigate this "paradise of peace" hidden in the perpetual adoration chapel at St. Peter's Parish!

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!

Prayer for the 2019 Convocation of Catholic Leaders: Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey

O Holy Spirit, you who first enkindled in our hearts the joy of the Gospel, renew that same joy in those who will gather to attend the Convocation of Catholic Leaders: Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey.

Continue to enflame the hearts of our bishop, priests, and their parish delegations; all clergy, religious, and speakers; all who make this event possible.

Move us to welcome the word of life in the depths of our hearts and respond to the call of missionary discipleship.

O Holy Spirit; transform our hearts and enable us to enter into the perfect communion that you share with the Father and the Son.

Mary Immaculate, who first received the Gospel, pray for us. Amen.

Readings for the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 10, 2019

Reading I – Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple. Seraphim were stationed above.

They cried one to the other, “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!” At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke.

Then I said, “Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!” Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar.

He touched my mouth with it, and said, “See, now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged.”

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?” “Here I am,” I said; “send me!”

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8

R.* In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth; in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise; I will worship at your holy temple and give thanks to your name.

R.* In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Because of your kindness and your truth; for you have made great above all things your name and your promise. When I called, you answered me; you built up strength within me.

R.* In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

All the kings of the earth shall give thanks to you, O LORD, when they hear the words of your mouth; and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD: “Great is the glory of the LORD.”

R.* In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Your right hand saves me. The LORD will complete what he has done for me; your kindness, O LORD, endures forever; forsake not the work of your hands.

R.* In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Reading II – 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

I am reminding you, brothers and sisters, of the gospel I preached to you, which you indeed received and in which you also stand. Through it you are also being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried; that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures; that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. After that, Christ appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one born abnormally, he appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God that is with me. Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

Gospel – Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch.” Simon said in reply, “Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets.” When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.” For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.” When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.
