Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe – November 25, 2018

St. Peter's Knights of Columbus

There is a group of laymen in the parish who are amazing Catholics, dedicated to Christ and his Church, and more specifically to St. Peter's. These men are the Knights of Columbus, Council #6735. You see them serving in so many ways around the parish, and they also serve in so many ways that you do not see. They are often hidden because they do not seek glory.

The Knights also enjoy a wonderful Christian fraternity among themselves. This camaraderie is a reflection of the deeply-held values that they share.

I would encourage any man in the parish to consider becoming a Knight of Columbus. You will find them welcoming and gracious, always ready to lend a helping hand.

*Venerable Servant of God,
Michael McGivney, pray for us!*

*Fr. Tim Byerley
Pastor*

BECOME A KNIGHT OF COLUMBUS

For information on becoming a Knight, email
Membership Director, Bob Blessinger @
BNABLES315@verizon.net or call him @ (856) 317-5855.

Father McGivney's Life and Times

In his 13 brief, busy years as a priest, Father McGivney's piety and compassion won the love of those he served as curate and pastor. His Christian inspiration, leadership and administrative drive brought him the loyalty and affection of thousands who knew him as the founder of the Knights of Columbus.

From the moment he launched it, the organization fortified Catholics in their faith, offered them ways to greater financial security in a sometimes hostile world, and strengthened them in self-esteem.

Remarkably developed from its simple beginnings in a church basement, the Knights of Columbus today combines Catholic fraternalism and one of the most successful American insurance enterprises. The four pillars of the international headquarters symbolize the Order's worldwide commitment to charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism. More than 14,000 fraternal councils are active in 14 countries.

At St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Father McGivney's polished granite sarcophagus, sheltered inside a totally restored church, has now become a shrine to pilgrim Knights where the Order began.

At the first memorial service for deceased Knights held in 1890, the year Father McGivney died, this tribute was accorded him:

He was a man of the people. He was zealous of the people's welfare, and all the kindness of his priestly soul asserted itself more strongly in his unceasing efforts for the betterment of their condition ...Oh, Reverend Founder. . .that act alone which gave life to the Knights of Columbus has surely secured for thee everlasting joy and eternal peace.

Delegations were present from almost every one of the 57 Knights of Columbus councils that had been chartered in the Order's first eight years.

To mark their 100th anniversary in 1982, the Knights of Columbus brought the remains of Father McGivney from Waterbury back to St. Mary's Church in New Haven, where he founded the Order. There he now rests in a setting in which daily Mass is offered for deceased Knights and prayers are said for his canonization.

Prayer to Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

O Christ Jesus, I acknowledge You as Universal King. All that has been made was created for You. Exercise over me all the rights that You have.

I renew my baptismal promises, renouncing Satan, his pomps and his works and I promise to live as a good Christian. Especially do I pledge myself, by all the means in my power, to bring about the triumph of the rights of God and of Your Church.

Divine Heart of Jesus, I consecrate all my poor actions to the cause of Your Kingship; that all hearts may acknowledge You their Ruler and so establish the Kingdom of Your Peace in all the world. Amen.

The Tradition Continues!

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

November 25, 2018

Reading I – Daniel 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 93:1, 1-2, 5

R.* The LORD is king; he is robed in majesty.

The LORD is king, in splendor robed; robed is the LORD and girt about with strength.

R.* The LORD is king; he is robed in majesty.

And he has made the world firm, not to be moved. Your throne stands firm from of old; from everlasting you are, O LORD.

R.* The LORD is king; he is robed in majesty.

Your decrees are worthy of trust indeed; holiness befits your house, O LORD, for length of days.

R.* The LORD is king; he is robed in majesty.

Reading II – Revelation 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

Gospel – John 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."
